paraders told to-day:
"The police of Washington stood by, doing nothing except to laugh or give flags directions. Men lining the route of the suffrage parade thrust out their legs and tripped women marchers."

Mrs. S. Johnson Poe said she saw one young girl chucklet under the chin by a leering man. The result will be indignation meetings of the suffraglats. Protests will be made to the Maryland Representatives and formally to the Governor of Maryland. Steps will be taken to see that Mal. Sylvester, blamed by the majority for the outrage, may be removed as chief of police.
